

NUPAC NM
ONLINE TRAINING
Free Training on Brief Nicotine Intervention

Health Care Professionals - 1.0 CME-designated activity | 1.0 CHW-designated activity

Treating Nicotine Dependence in New Mexico

Health care professionals who enroll in this course will gain the knowledge and skills to address nicotine use with patients, including:

- Effective communications techniques for addressing nicotine with patients
- How to deliver a nicotine intervention in less than three minutes
- The specific risks and consequences of nicotine use on the body
- How to make referrals to New Mexico Nicotine Addiction Treatment Services and other appropriate resources

Health Care Professionals - 1.0 CME-designated activity | 1.0 CHW-designated activity

Family Nicotine Intervention for Health Care Professionals in New Mexico

Health Care Professionals who enroll in this course gain the knowledge and skills to address nicotine use with New Mexico families, including:

- Effective communication techniques for addressing nicotine with women, minors and families
- The specific risk of nicotine use and the benefits of quitting for families
- How to deliver a nicotine intervention in less than three minutes
- How to make referrals to New Mexico Nicotine Addiction Treatment Services and other appropriate resources

Oral Health Professionals - 1.0 CDE- Credit Pending

Addressing Nicotine Use in Oral Health Settings

Oral Health Professionals who enroll in this course will gain the knowledge and skills to address tobacco use with patients, including:

- The specific risks, consequences, and impacts of nicotine on oral health and on the body
- How to deliver a brief nicotine intervention in less than three minutes
- Effective communication techniques for addressing nicotine with patients
- How to make referrals to the New Mexico Nicotine Addiction Treatment Services and other appropriate resources

Behavioral Health Professionals - 1.0 CHW-designated activity

Addressing Nicotine Use in Behavioral Health Settings

Behavioral Health Professionals who enroll in this course will gain the knowledge and skills to address nicotine use with patients, including:

- The unique impacts of nicotine on the behavioral health treatment population, and strategies to address nicotine use in treatment plans
- How to deliver a nicotine intervention in less than three minutes
- Effective communications techniques for addressing nicotine with patients